Bio

At just 17, Ava Valianti is quickly emerging as one of independent music's most exciting young singer-songwriters. Her emotionally honest songwriting and fearless artistic evolution have taken her from the introspective indie pop of her debut EP petunias to the guitar-driven pop-rock of Sophomore Slump, with her upcoming EP kismet exploring jazz and R&B influences while staying rooted in the lyrical authenticity that defines her music.

As an independent artist, Ava has amassed more than 650,000 streams, earned airplay on 300+ radio stations worldwide, charted on the Weighted College Radio Top 200, and received recognition from the Boston Music Awards, New England Music Awards, International Acoustic Music Awards, and American Songwriter, where she was named First Runner-Up in the Road Ready Talent Contest after performing at Nashville's legendary The Basement East.

A dynamic live performer, Ava has headlined shows across the Northeast and performed in New York City, Nashville, and at the Grammy Museum in Los Angeles. She has also shared the stage with artists including Jamie Fine, Morgan St. Jean, The Strumbellas, Jessica Baio, Lucy Kaplansky, and Andrew Duhon.

With two acclaimed EPs and a highly anticipated third release arriving this fall, Ava continues to establish herself as one of the most compelling new voices in independent music.
